- Bring product related competitive intelligence into the organization.

About you, as our ideal candidate:

The ideal candidate brings the following experiences and competencies to the team:

- Degree in business administration with proven, high affinity towards life sciences or food and beverage industry or in food technology, life sciences or comparable studies
- Ideally already 2-3 years of experience in Product Management or related functions in B2B markets, preferred food/beverage ingredients
- Self-motivated, results-driven and reliable team player.
- Hands-on project management skills, process thinking and ability to drive project success.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills, competent and empathic in stakeholder management and an intercultural mindset.
- Proficient in English, Dutch and/or German is a plus.

What do we find important?

GNT operates globally, being an independent, family-owned business committed to investing in products, technology and importantly, our people. The GNT values are the basis of our daily activities. That's why we think it's important that we fit together. GNT employs people who are enterprising and take responsibility. Customer and service orientation is of course paramount! We always take that extra step to offer our external and internal customers the best service. In addition, we do everything we do as sustainably as possible. We are open and honest with each other and bring out the best in each other.

What do we offer you?

- A varied job with a successful and innovative company that is always evolving.
- A full-time gross annual salary between €59.090,- to €84.430,- depending on your knowledge and experience.
- 26 vacation days (possibility to purchase extra days).
- A very favorable pension scheme.
- Competitive salary based on experience.

We color the world, do you?
